

Jonathan (Jay) Buhl

1650 Cimarron Trail

Midlothian, TX 76065

214-923-4027

jaybobschk@live.com

SUMMARY:

Ethically noble, detail-oriented Computed Tomography and Radiologic Technologist with reliability, flexibility, and trustworthiness who wants to pursue and advance in a career in radiography while displaying exemplary patient care.

SKILLS:

- CT/Radiography
- Vital signs
- Trauma experience
- AIDET training
- Direct patient care
- Mobile x-rays
- PACS/Film
- 7Medical, CPSI experience

EDUCATION and CERTIFICATIONS:

ARRT registration passed

- ARRT certified July 2018
- MRT certified July 2018

Fortis Institute – Grand Prairie, Texas

- Radiology Technology Diploma August 2010-2012

American Heart Association

- BLS for Healthcare providers

October 2018

EMPLOYMENT:

Texas General Hospital - Grand Prairie, Texas

January 2013-present

CT and Radiologic Technologist

Duties included: Patient care, assist radiologist with fluoroscopy in radiology fluoro room and O.R., work in ER department within a team atmosphere, administer contrast to patients, run CT along with X-ray machines in an unsupervised environment, work(ed) all shifts, mainly night shift.

Various clinical sites including JPS, Touchstones - DFW metroplex

October 2010-2012

Radiologic Technology Student

Duties included: Patient care, assist radiologist with fluoroscopy, mobile x-ray, C-arm, Emergency Department, and assist with bone densitometry.

STMicroelectronics - Carrollton, Texas

May 2004-April 2009

Advance Manufacturing Specialist

Duties included: Ran and maintained several tools for production of silicon wafers with an extensive amount of attention-to-detail and versatility, running multiple tools simultaneously.